NEOFORCE CERTIFIED M/WBE FROM DADE COUNTY FL

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2008: IVYLAND, PA USA: NeoForce is a "Women Owned Business", from Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Today received certification from Dade County School District as a Minority/Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE).

The M/WBE certification for women-owned businesses is one of the most widely recognized and respected certifications in the nation. "M/WBE certification will be an important marketing tool for us", explained Otho Boone, President of NeoForce Group. "It will expand our company's visibility among decision makers in corporate supplier diversity programs and a growing part of hospital purchasing strategies not only in south Florida but nationwide."

Miami-Dade County Public Schools is the fourth largest school district in the country. The School Board of Miami-Dade County, Florida (The Board) adopted policy in 1985 to implement a Minority/Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE) Program. The Program has been the catalyst for ensuring fair and equitable opportunities for minority and woman-owned businesses. Since the program's inception, nearly $2.5 billion has been spent with certified M/WBEs, greatly contributing to the economic growth of South Florida.
